

Heart of the Highlands Trail System Project Concept Map

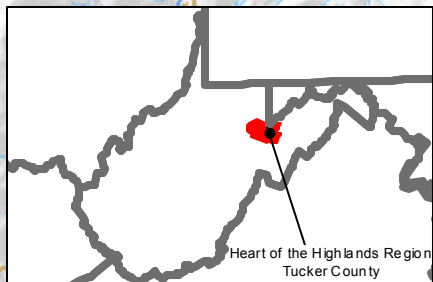

Working to improve recreational trails and enhance alternative transportation routes within Tucker County and to connect to long distance trail networks including: Allegheny Highlands Trail, Continental Divide Loop, Great Allegheny Passage Trail, and C&O Canal Towpath

Proposed rail trail extension of Allegheny Highlands Trail along Route 93/Corridor H

Petitioning for connections to complete the Heart of the Highlands proposed Core Loop to link the existing trails on public lands in Tucker County into a cohesive, multi-use trail system that is easily accessible to the public

Working to improve recreational trails and enhance alternative transportation routes within Tucker County and to connect to long distance trail networks including: American Discovery Trail, Allegheny Trail, and the Appalachian Trail

Legend

- Existing HoH Core Loop Trail
- ▲ Trail Bridge
- P HoH Core Loop Trail Head Parking
- Existing Trails
- Rivers and Streams
- Roads
- WV State Parks
- Canaan Valley NWR
- Monongahela National Forest
- Little Canaan Wildlife Management Area

Revised December 2014

1 Mile

N

More information about the Heart of the Highlands Trail System is available at www.heartofthehighlands.org or facebook.com/HeartoftheHighlands

The Allegheny Trail (running 330 miles north-south through West Virginia) and the American Discovery Trail (running 6,800 miles east-west across the United States) share many miles of existing trails and roadways within Tucker County.

DISCLAIMER:
This Concept Map is intended for general reference use only. It has been created with care and attention to detail using various data sets which may, however, contain errors, omissions or inconsistencies.